What is the difference between a copy and a loan?

Applies to

- WorldShare ILL
- Tipasa
- ILLiad

Answer

A copy is an article or Article Exchange request. A loan is a book or a physical item like a video or dvd. In requests, the difference between a loan and copy request is that the former marks a returnable, whereas the latter does not need to be returned.