Find information about the Web Service Keys Admin authorization role available in the Admin module. The Web Service Keys Admin role (WSKey Admin) allows users to access WSKey Management at the OCLC Developer Network. This role can be used by institutions who do not have another administrative role to assign (e.g., EZproxy-only institutions).