The OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging service allows libraries to access WorldCat to search and retrieve MARC records for cataloging, edit records in their local systems, and set holding information in WorldCat.

- Get started

  No image available

  Get started with the OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging service.
  - About Z39.50 Cataloging
  - Configuration guide for OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging
  - Get started with OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging

- Use Z39.50 Cataloging

  No image available

  Find search tips and steps for database update implementation.
  - Database update implementation for OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging: Extended Service Definition
  - Search tips for OCLC Z39.50 Authorities
  - Search tips for OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging

- Troubleshooting

  No image available

  Find frequently asked questions (FAQ) and troubleshooting steps (Troubleshooting).
  - Can I access authority files with this service?
  - Can I display holdings information for individual items?
  - Can I edit/delete full records?
  - Can I use CJK or other non-Latin alphabet software?
  - Can my library use RCON and search-only authorizations?
  - Does this service provide access to other OCLC databases?
  - For authentication it says that "The service patron password is the password that must be used".
  - How does OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging compare to OCLC Connexion?
  - How do member libraries delete holdings?
  - How do member libraries set holdings?
  - Unable to download single bibliographic record from Z39.50 cataloging to Alma
What are the URL addresses for Z39.50 access?

https://help.oclc.org/Metadata_Services/Z3950_Cataloging